

THE ST. LOUIS AMERICAN

FEB 24 – MAR 2, 2005

Cookies for the homeless

Blossom Wood Day School's annual Cookie Bake for the homeless, a school-wide project since 2000, produced a Valentine's Day treat of some 4,200 cookies for the folks at the New Life Evangelistic Center. Blossom Wood is a private, independent, African-American-owned school located in suburban North County.

Blossom Wood Day School's annual Cookie Bake for the homeless, a school-wide project since 2000, produced a Valentine's Day treat of 4,200 cookies for the folks at the New Life Evangelistic Center. Blossom Wood is a private, independent, African-American-owned school located in suburban North County.